

PUBLISHED WRITERS OF ROSSMOOR TO HOLD
“GREAT RE-ZOOM” ON SEPTEMBER 12
ATTORNEY KELLEY WAY TO SPEAK

Having been on a meeting hiatus since March, the Published Writers of Rossmoor will assemble on Saturday, September 12 at 10 a.m. But this time the gathering will take place via Zoom.

“I’m calling it ‘The Great Re-Zoom,’” says PWR president Dick Friedman. “We played for time hoping that by Labor Day we’d be able to hold in-person, if socially distanced, meetings. Like many Rossmoor organizations, we are bowing to the inevitable as we enter the 21st century.”

The meeting’s guest speaker is Kelley Way, whose topic will be “Lessons in Literary Law.” A Walnut Creek native, Way deals with estate planning, copyright, and trademark matters. She received her B.A. in English (with a minor in music) from UC Davis and her J.D. from the UC Davis School of Law.

PWR is dedicated to supporting aspiring, as well as, accomplished authors in publishing and promoting their books. All residents are welcome to attend its programs even if they are not PWR club members. To receive an invitation to the September 12th Zoom session, please contact membership chairwoman Julie Blade at julieblade@gmail.com.
